

Some of the Recent Presentations Hosted by the AAG's WA Division

The Changing Role of Carers: Carers as Key Partners in Care

Hosted jointly with Carers WA and the Centre for Research on Ageing (Curtin University of Technology)

Guest Speaker - Dr. Karen Ritchie an epidemiologist and a neuropsychologist who began her career in Australia and is now Director of the French National Institute of Medical Research.

HRT: should we or shouldn't we?

Hosted jointly with the Western Australian Institute for Medical Research (University of Western Australia) and the Western Australian Centre for Healthy Ageing.

Guest Speaker - Dr. Karen Ritchie (see above for details).

Exercise for Healthy Ageing

Guest Speaker - Professor Robert Newton, Foundation Professor of Exercise and Sports Science at Edith Cowan University and Director of the Vario Health Institute.

Developing a Framework for Active Ageing for Older Adults with Lifelong Intellectual Disability

Guest Speaker-Associate Professor Laurie Buys, National President of the AAG. Also Assistant Dean (Research) in the School of Humanities and Human Services and the Director of the Centre for Social Change Research at Queensland University of Technology.

The Role of Clinical Psychology in the Medical Treatment of the Aged

Guest speaker: Dr Michelle Read, Specialist Clinical Psychologist and Clinical Neuropsychologist, Fremantle Older Adult Mental Health Service South