

Ageing: Challenging the boundaries

45th Australian Association of Gerontology National Conference

20 – 23 November 2012

Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre, Brisbane, QLD

www.aagconference.com

On behalf of the Australian Association of Gerontology, we extend an invitation for you to join us at the 45th National Conference at the Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre from the 20th – 23rd November 2012. Our inter-disciplinary conference theme emphasises the importance of challenging and breaking through perceived boundaries in ageing that determine the limits of our research, policy and practice. This conference is designed to connect, challenge, and inspire the exchange of innovative ideas between older people, researchers, practitioners, educators, industry, voluntary and community organisations and policy makers.

Call for abstracts – oral and poster presentations

The Scientific Committee warmly invites abstract submissions for either an oral or poster presentation from those wishing to share their research, innovative practice and learnings in all areas related to ageing. For further information, and to download the complete call for abstracts, please visit the conference website at www.aagconference.com.

IMPORTANT DATES

Abstract Submission Deadline: Friday 11th May 2012

Presenter Notification: Monday 9th July 2012

Registration Deadline for Accepted Authors: Friday 10th August 2012
