

AAG
Australian
Association of Gerontology

Guidelines for public comment on behalf of AAG approved by the Board

Public comments on behalf of AAG can be made by:

- Board Members
- CEO
- Identified experts.

All public comments made on behalf of AAG must comply with the following principles:

- only disclose or discuss publicly available information
- ensure that all content is accurate and not misleading
- adhere to copyright, privacy, defamation, contempt of court, anti-discrimination, harassment, and other applicable laws
- be polite and respectful of other people's opinions at all times
- add value to the public discussion.

All public comments to be made on behalf of AAG must be referred to the CEO for prior approval (ceo@aag.asn.au or 03 8506 0525).