PUBLISH BEFORE YOU PERISH! WRITING FOR SCHOLARLY JOURNALS: HOW TO 'GET PUBLISHED'

WORKSHOP HOSTED BY

Australasian Journal on Ageing (AJA)

PRESENTED BY

Prof Lynne Parkinson

Editor in Chief - AJA

Adjunct Professorial Research Fellow, LEAP Centre,

CQUniversity Australia

Dr Jane Sims

Deputy Editor in Chief - AJA

Health Research & Evaluation Consultant

Scholarly writing is an essential academic skill, and can be useful for practitioners and others who want to share achievements in practice or debate change in policy. This two-hour workshop will focus on the manuscript process from the editorial perspective.

The workshop will include short presentations, interactive writing exercises and open discussion. You will:

- Consider how to write with a journal and readers in mind
- Explore mind mapping
- Develop a methodical approach to writing an article
- Learn how to produce a working abstract
- Obtain tips on how to respond to reviewers and editors feedback on submitted articles

Delegates are encouraged to bring along an idea for an article, a title and/or a summary/abstract of work they are seeking to publish.
