

AAG
Australian
Association of Gerontology

EVENT PROGRAM

Healthy Ageing – A Lifelong Process

AAG Hunter Chapter Seminar

Program

Friday 15th March

The Hunter Medical Research
Institute Lecture Theatre

Proudly Supported by

Priority Research Centre for
Generational Health & Ageing

NSW Regional
HEALTH PARTNERS
CENTRE FOR INNOVATION IN REGIONAL HEALTH

Health
Hunter New England
Local Health District

EVENT PROGRAM

Session	Time	Presenters/Facilitators	Topic
Welcome	9.00	Dr Felicity Barr President, Hunter AAG
	9.15	Dr John Ward Senior Staff Specialist Geriatrician, HNELHD, Conjoint Assoc. Professor, UoN	A life-course approach to healthy ageing.
	9.45	Professor Carol Jagger AXA Professor of Epidemiology of Ageing and Deputy Director of the Newcastle University Institute for Ageing (NUIA) UK	Past and future trends in healthy life expectancy in England
Morning tea	10.30
	11.00	Professor Julie Byles Global Innovation Chair in Responsive Transitions in Health and Ageing UoN	Longevity and healthy ageing among women in Australia
	11.45	Ms Carol Sinclair Manager, Community Services, Lane Cove Council	Age friendly communities
	12.05	Mr Ian O'Dea HealthPathways Program Manager, Partnerships Innovation and Research, HNELHD	Let's get practical - Supporting health professionals to deliver Integrated Health Care for Older People
	12.25	Dr Sharon Ryan Clinical Lead – Palliative and End of Life Care Clinical Stream, HNELHD	Co Designing a Model of Care to Optimise End of Life Care in Location of Choice for Residents of Residential Aged Care Facilities
Lunch	13.00
	14.00	Ms Lana Richards Executive Manager (Ageing) – Practice Excellence Uniting	Reimagining Aged Care – What's strong not wrong.
Panel discussion	14.30	Professor Julie Byles with: Ms Viv Allanson CEO, Maroba Professor Dimity Pond School of Medicine and Public Health (General Practice), UoN	Help, with dignity As people age they may need greater support with daily activities, and help to remain socially connected. They also should preserve the right to have a say in what happens to them, and the right to be treated with dignity. This panel will involve a Q and A style discussion on how we can provide support to older people within the framework of healthy ageing, and at the same time respecting their human right to autonomy and independence.
Close	15.30		