

AAG NT AWARD 2019 for

Outstanding Contribution to Gerontology in the Northern Territory

Nominations are invited from AAG members, members of the public and the aged care sector to recognise an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to gerontology in the Northern Territory. Examples of criteria for nomination include:

- Sustained and significant contribution to the study of ageing and/or aged care in the Northern Territory
- Outstanding contribution in the practice of aged care (roles can include coordination, managerial, training and caring)
- Significant contribution to quality aged care service provision and advocacy
- Enhancing understanding of the particular needs of older people in the NT (for example Indigenous, rural and remote, ethnic groups)
- Significant contribution to a positive public perception of ageing in the NT

The award winner will receive a certificate, complimentary membership of AAG for the following year, and a cash prize of $500.

NOMINATIONS

Please address one of the above criteria in a short letter or email to Judy Ratajecz by: 18 April 2019.

Please include name and contact details of person being nominated, nominator and seconder.

Email: judy.ratajecz@nt.gov.au

AAG Webinars : To register and for more information — www.aag.asn.au

29 May 19

QLD SECR Webinar - Call for abstracts

2019 Student and Early Career Researchers Cutting Edge Research Event. Call for Abstracts!
Queensland based HDR Students (Master, PhD, ClinPhD) and Early Career Researchers (3yrs post-doc), are invited to share their research with researchers and clinicians with a special interest in Gerontology at the upcoming Queensland Division Cutting Edge Research in Ageing webinar on 29th May 2018

AAG NT Division 2019 Committee

Judy Ratajecz— Division Chair and Membership Officer
Pauline Howard— Treasurer
Mary Ingrams—Secretary
Aneeta Snow— Events Co-ordinator
Board Nominee— Annie Farthing

Michael Hodson— Committee Member
Janice Diamond— Committee Member
Rebecca McGrath— Committee Member
Deborah Roe—Committee Member
Kaylene Hinchcliffe— Committee Member
Gillian Brearley— Committee Member
Susan Williams—Committee Member

Sponsorship to Attend

The AAG NT Division offers financial assistance to one member each year to attend an AAG or IAGG event. This year it is the 52nd AAG National Conference in Sydney

Sponsorship of $500 is available to assist members with the costs associated with attending this event, including registration and travel.

Conditions of Assistance:

If you would like to put yourself forward for the funding, you need to fulfil the following criteria:

Current membership of AAG (NT Division)

Unable to obtain sufficient funds from your own organisation or institution

Attendance at the event will assist in your own practice, research or community have an abstract accepted (for student members only)

Must submit a short report for inclusion in the NT AAG newsletter

Please address the above criteria in a brief letter. Applications are to be forwarded by 31 September 2019 to: Judy Ratajec

AAG NT Division Membership Officer by:

Email: judy.ratajec@nt.gov.au

The successful applicant will be notified within 1 week of the closing date.

Consider joining the NT AAG

- ◆ Are you a Health Professional working in Aged Care
- ◆ Are you a student interested in Aged Care
- ◆ Do you know someone with an interest in the ageing.

New members are welcome!!

If you would like more information log onto www.aag.asn.au

Judy Ratajec

AAG NT Division Membership Officer