It is becoming increasingly common for people in the field of ageing to move between sectors, including working in academic, government and industry roles.

This workshop will:

~ hear from three speakers reflecting on their diverse pathways, highlighting the challenges and opportunities to developing and maintaining a rewarding career:

~ engage participants in the discussion, by reflecting on their current and potential pathways and capacities, including completing a SWOT analysis of their Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, and Threats;

~ provide multiple opportunities for group discussion to share learnings.

By the end of the workshop, participants will:

~ have an understanding of the range of career pathways available to them;

~ be better able to identify the pathways relevant to them;

~ have a better understanding of how to position themselves for an extended and diverse career in ageing.
