

Event Program

Spinning the Web: Integrating Services to Provide Person-Centred Care

Jointly hosted with the Research Centre for Gender Health and Ageing

10:00am – 10:15am	Opening and Welcome Dr Felicity Barr, President, AAG Hunter Chapter
10:15am– 11:00am	Integrated care - how will consumer-directed care affect this? Prof Leon Flicker (AAG Inaugural National Travelling Fellow) Director, WACHA, University of Western Australia
11:00am – 11:30am	Supporting integrated care in NSW Chris Shipway, Director – Primary Care and Chronic Services, NSW Agency for Clinical Innovation
11:30am – 12:00pm	Consumer directed care – can I have fries with that? Angie Robinson, National Manager – Care Services, integratedliving
12:00pm – 12:30pm	Health, hospitals and care in later life, new research findings Prof Julie Byles, Director - Research Centre for Gender Health and Ageing, University of Newcastle
12:30pm – 1:30pm	LUNCH Posters and displays on local initiatives will be on show
1:30pm – 3:00pm	New approaches to integrating care in the Hunter - a series of short presentations on innovative local development now underway A series of 15 minutes presentations as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Acute care support to RACFs Dr Carolyn Hullick and Jacky Hewitt, HNE Health</li> <li>• Dementia Care in the Community Dr John Ward, HNE Health</li> <li>• Extended Care Paramedics – an innovative step towards Integrated Care Sarah Rivett, NSW Ambulance Service</li> <li>• CAPAC and the Healthy at Home Program Richard Woods, HNE Health</li> <li>• Improving end-of-life care Dr Lee Fong, Hunter Medicare Local</li> </ul>
3:00pm	Wrap-up and Close