

‘And this is one of the good ones.....’

And it really is one of the good ones.

PLACE: Dying in the dining room/ Living in the waiting room

SPIRIT: Death so ordinary that it does not seem normal but how do we design for something we don't talk about?

'HEART: My daughter is the way I stay engaged with the world'

Jean

The architecture of well-being for dementia and ageing-in-place: exploring how the design of Australian RACFs can enhance well-being of people living and dying with dementia, their family, and staff carers

Karen Kennedy